

Major Injury & Trauma Research

A Centre for Trauma Sciences Event for Patients and the Public

Tuesday 11 September 2018 - Old Library, Garrod Building, Turner St
London E1 2AD

15:30 Tea & Registration

16:00 What is Trauma? Why bother with Research?
(Professor Karim Brohi)

16:15 Trauma Systems: the chain of survival
(Dr Elaine Cole)

16:30 How is that ethical? Clinical research with the severely injured
(Claire Rourke)

16:45 Science of the Bleeding Obvious! A decade of research success (Dr Ross Davenport)

17:00 Break

17:15 Why be an advocate for clinical research? What's in it for you? (Ngawai Moss)

17:30 How lay advisors advance trauma care and science
(James Piercy)

17:45 Q&A session with panel, followed by:

Drinks reception

There will also be stands by Barts Charity, AfterTrauma, and displays of information and interactive games from our recent public engagement activities.