

THE TORCH COURSE FOR MAJOR TRAUMA

11-12
NOVEMBER
2019

Do you deliver ongoing care to injured patients as part of a Major Trauma Service?

If so, the TORCH course will teach you how to lead, co-ordinate and cohere the care that complex polytrauma patients require once they have left the critical care unit

COURSE CONVENORS:

Mr Shehan Hettiaratchy
- St Mary's Hospital Major Trauma Centre

Mr Nigel Tai
- Royal London Hospital Major Trauma Centre

Dr Elaine Cole
- London Trauma System

TESTIMONIES:

'Fantastic course. Inspirational and educational faculty. Cannot recommend course highly enough'

'I don't think there is another course out there like this. I will recommend this course to my colleagues'

Accredited by the Royal College of Surgeons of England for up to 11.5 CPD points

WHAT: A 2 day course consisting of didactic lectures and small group discussions delivered by a superb trauma faculty

WHY: For clinicians who will work on a Major Trauma Service or who are preparing for Trauma TIG application

WHO: CST 1 – 2 and ST3 – 6 from any acute hospital based discipline

WHERE: Bainbridge Room, Robin Brook Centre, 19 Giltspur St, London EC1A 9DD

COST: £150

TOPICS: TBI, Spinal injury, Guide to therapies, Vulnerable Patient, Solid Organ Injury, Fixation & Flaps

Email:

traumaTORCH@gmail.com

Closing Date:

18th October 2019
Maximum of 24 places